

“These twin sisters from Switzerland offer a dazzling blend of beauty, passion and musicianship.”

ALBEK DUO

Ambra Albek, violin and viola
Fiona Albek, piano

Saint Peter's Church
Lexington Avenue and 54th Street
New York City

Friday, November 18, 2011
7:30 PM

Suggested Donation: $10 Seniors: $5
Members of the Congregation and Students: Free Admission

“No chamber duo in memory can match the Albek Duo for beauty of expression and depth of musicianship. And this plus a captivating stage presence and the ability to communicate the sheer joy of music-making to their audiences.”

Program

- |                        |   |
|------------------------|---|
| Joaquín Turina  | From «El poema de una sanluqueña»                               |
| William Perry   | The Nightingale in the Park                                     |
| Edvard Grieg    | Violin Sonata No. 2 in G Major                                  |
| Manuel de Falla | Dance Espagnole from «La Vida Breve»                            |
| Ernest Bloch    | Abodah  |
| Bedřich Smetana | «From My Homeland» No. 2  |
| Béla Bartók     | Romanian Folk Dances( arranged for viola and piano ) |
| A. Lucchetti    | Fantasy on Themes fromGiacomo Puccini's «Tosca»             |

NEW RELEASE

The Albek Duo records for Naxos and Eroica Records

Featuring the Gemini Concerto with Ambra and Fiona Albek

NOVEMBER 2011 TOUR OF NEW YORK AND NEW ENGLAND
Please visit albekduo.com for details