CUNARD INSIGHTS LECTURES

KIM SHARMAN

At 11.00am: 'Beloved, Respected and Lamented'. Captain William Bligh - a name that has resonated down the years. How, and why, did the "Mutiny on the Bounty" happen, and was he the cruel man that books and films portray? This lecture shows that he was the victim of 18th Century spin - which has stuck.

BRUCE LINDSAY

At 12.15pm: 'The Assassination of Napoleon Bonaparte of St. Helena'. Be the members of the Jury as the facts are presented to determine who planned this deed and how it came about. Arsenic was involved but this did not kill Napoleon. Not until 1955 could the evidence be scientifically proven and the truth revealed.

Royal Court Theatre, Decks 1, 2 & 3, Forward

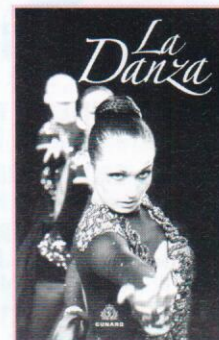

'RHODES & KUSADASI'

At 2.00pm From the famous Greek island of Rhodes to the popular Turkish resort of Kusadasi, Gavin introduces you to some of the main sights to see.
Royal Court Theatre, Decks 1, 2 & 3, Forward

HARP UNDER THE STARS

With Harpist Rebecca Mills.
